NORTH ROAD BOULEVARD

The enduring rhythms of the sea meet one of Melbourne's grand boulevards, a sweeping tree-lined avenue with echoes of another era, another place. An exceptional address deserving of exceptional homes.

Refined, sophisticated, tall and elegant, North Road Boulevard brings world class architecture and landscape design to one of Brighton's most exclusive locales. Contemporary apartments of immaculate quality, a short stroll from Port Phillip Bay, create a very modern refuge in which to escape, entertain and unwind.

ARCHITECTURE

The best architecture combines aesthetic beauty and functionality in a perfect whole. It forms buildings that are one with their environment, that are designed to last.

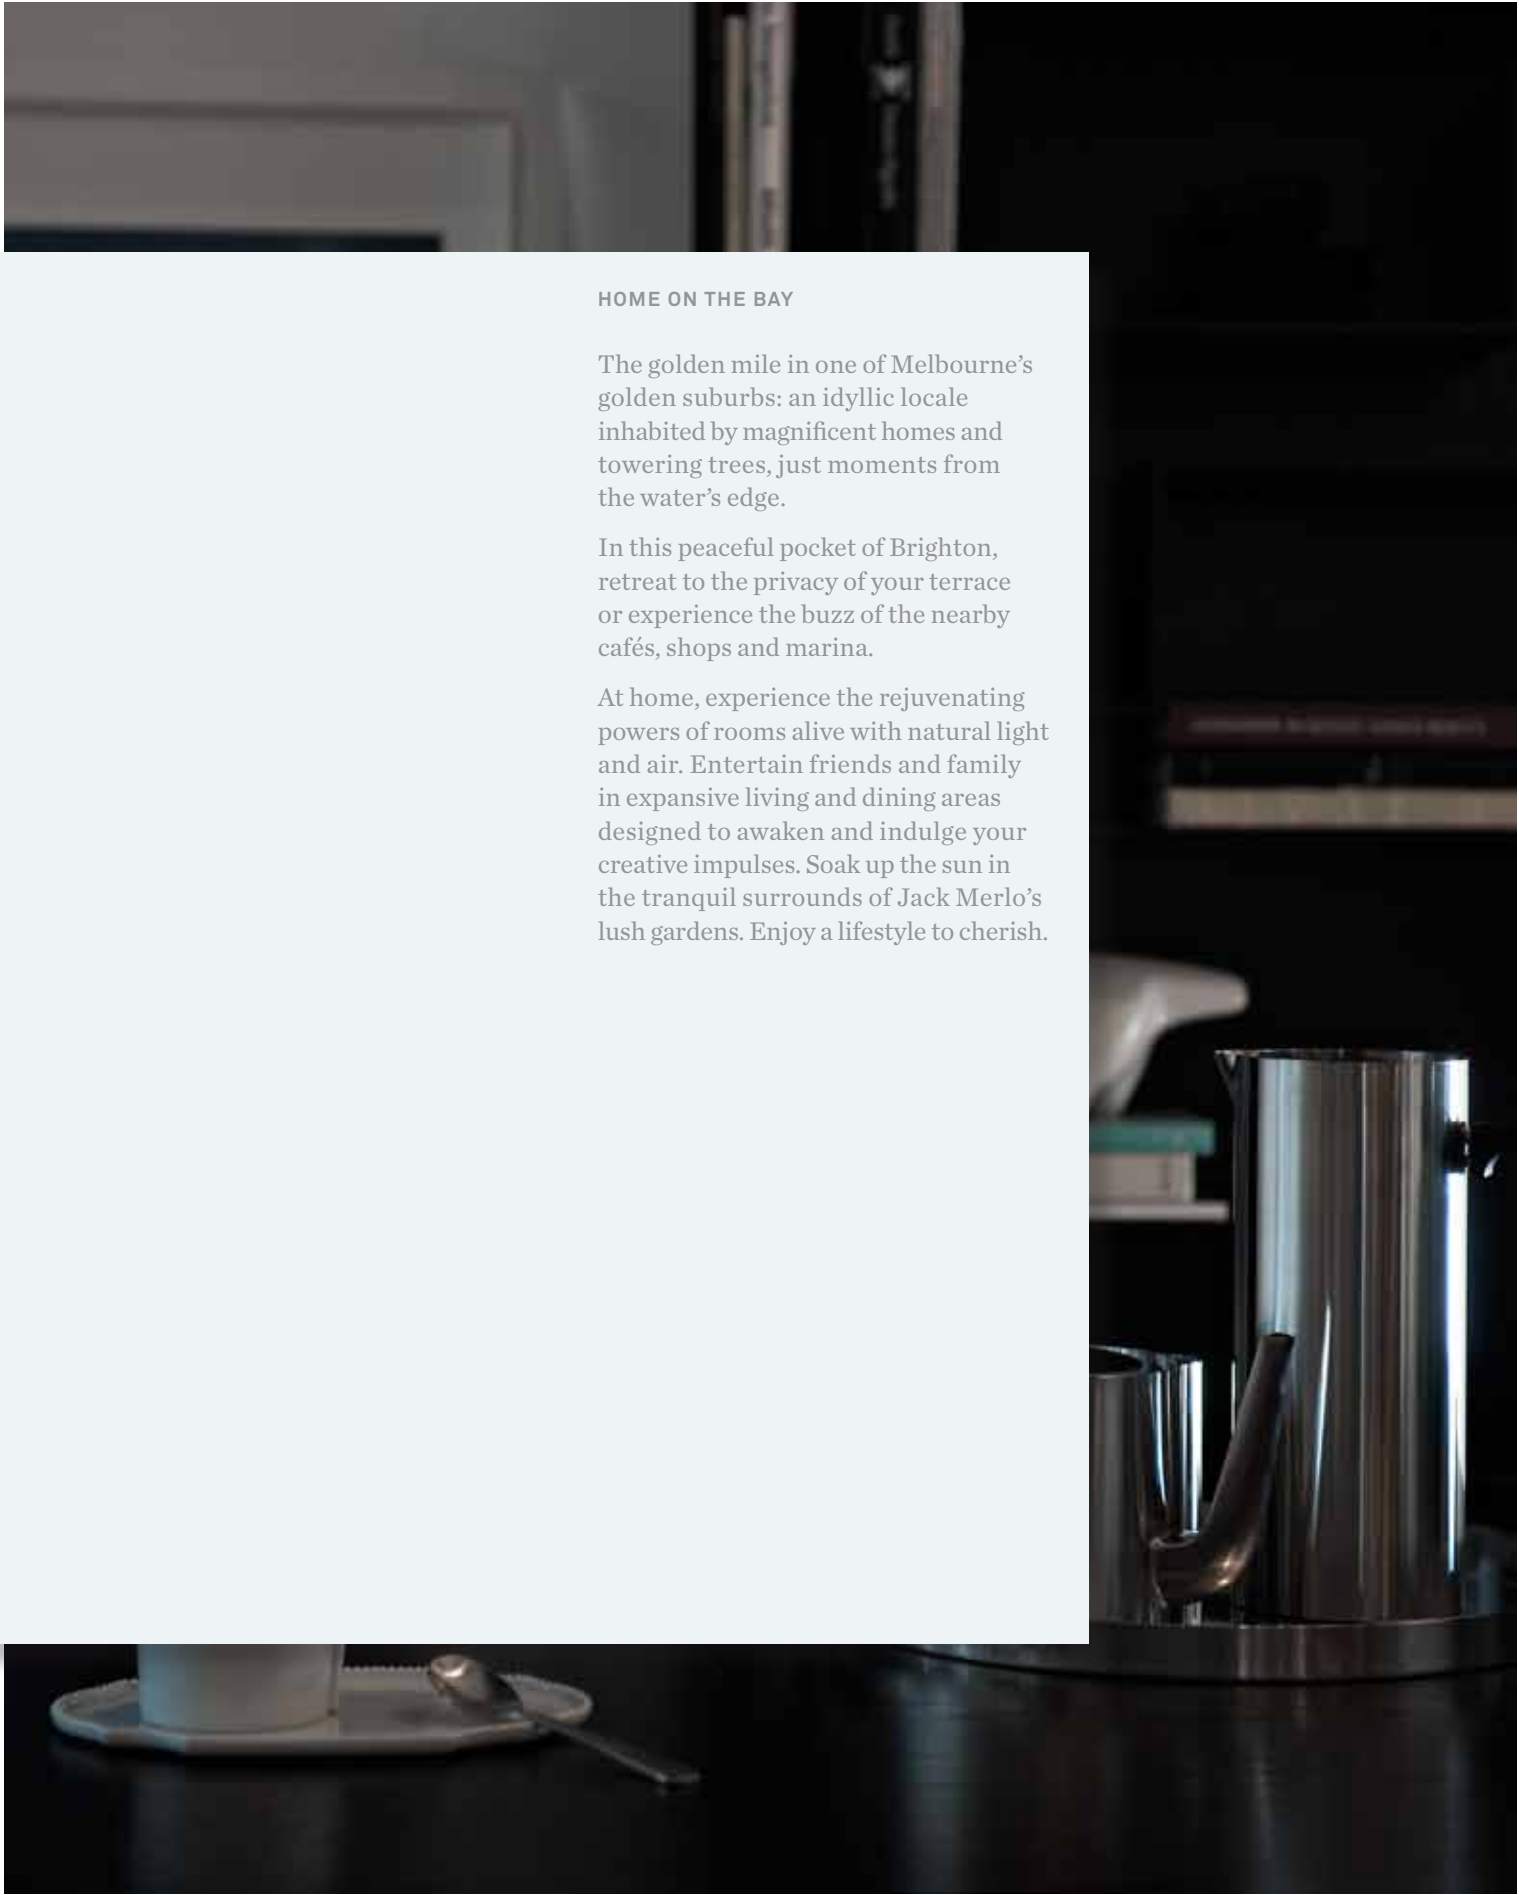

At North Road Boulevard, visionary Australian architect Rob Mills' ultra-contemporary apartments are infused by just such qualities. Signature touches found in his iconic Melbourne homes — clever use of light and air, simple palettes, and organic materials such as natural stone and oak timber flooring — result in fourteen apartments as spacious, luxurious and refined as the boulevard on which they sit.

Subtle nautical elements reference the bayside location, while simple, elegant landscaping by Jack Merlo provides the ideal foil for the architecture, enhancing its clean lines and placing the homes effortlessly within North Road's natural environment.

HOME ON THE BAY

The golden mile in one of Melbourne’s golden suburbs: an idyllic locale inhabited by magnificent homes and towering trees, just moments from the water’s edge.

In this peaceful pocket of Brighton, retreat to the privacy of your terrace or experience the buzz of the nearby cafés, shops and marina.

At home, experience the rejuvenating powers of rooms alive with natural light and air. Entertain friends and family in expansive living and dining areas designed to awaken and indulge your creative impulses. Soak up the sun in the tranquil surrounds of Jack Merlo’s lush gardens. Enjoy a lifestyle to cherish.

FROM THE DIRECTOR

We believe that by working with the very best in the business, we create homes that excite the individual. And in contemporary residential design, they don't come any better than Rob Mills and Jack Merlo.

Working with them on North Road Boulevard has been inspirational, something that comes across clearly in every aspect of the development. Bold, elegant, spacious and forward-thinking, these apartments are very much homes for the future.

With good reason, Brighton is one of the most sought after suburbs in Melbourne and North Road one of its most desirable addresses. As such, we're proud to be responsible for creating homes that belong in such exalted company.
